“SMOKE on the WATER”

from the SMOKER

Smoked trout 17,50
Horseradish cream, flatbread (A, D, G)

First, the brine is prepared. The salt is dissolved in cold water, and the fish are left overnight in the brine. Then they are patted dry, hung on hooks, warm smoked in the smoker, and served lukewarm. We use beech sawdust. The trout comes from Gut Dornau, Lower Austria..

Organic chicken drumstick 16,50
Pepper letscho, salt-crusted potatoes, cooked with a subtle smoky flavor in the smoker

Vegan appetizer platter 12,50
Smoked eggplant slices, letscho, corn on the cob, salt-crusted potatoes (A)

Corn on the cob 4,90

About 9000 years ago, people in what is now Mexico began collecting and eating the wild grass Teosinte. Over millennia, human selection has led to significant changes in the grass, transforming the plant into modern corn.

Salt-crusted potatoes with Dip 4,90

400 years ago, the potato was a foreign, exotic vegetable in Europe. Originally, it comes from the Andes in South America. Already 5,000 years ago, the indigenous people, the Incas, cultivated potatoes as food.

we are different

In 2017, we launched the 'Special Gastronomics' project. At the Badeschiff, we offer gastronomic offerings prepared equally by 'disabled' and 'non-disabled' colleagues. In 2018, we were honored to receive the Vienna Inclusion Award for our 'Special Gastronomics' project.

In the summer of 2022, we expanded the Special Gastronomics kitchen for the first time, and this year, we've taken it up a notch!

"Smoke on the Water" - Trout, organic chicken legs, and vegetables come from our new smokehouses. Everything is smoked directly on the ship in our Special Gastronomics kitchen. And yes, we're a little proud of it. Special Gastronomics at its best
